D63 CBO Line-up Card Instructions for Managers

1. Complete the header sections. Game numbers and Site are available on the Game Schedule for the tournament.
2. List all players by Last Name, First Initial.
3. Enter each player's jersey number in the "#" column.
4. Enter each player's starting defensive position in the "1" column. Use standard baseball scorekeeping numbers for the positions (see below). Leave the space empty for players that are not participating on defense.
5. The line-up cards have 4 pages. You get the bottom copy. Write firmly so that you will be able to read it. Give the third copy to the scorekeeper ahead of the game. Bring the top two copies to the plate meeting.
6. A player listed in the line-up but not present at the start of the game must be scratched. If the player arrives later, you may add that player to the end of the batting order. S/he will not bat in the original spot in the line-up.
7. Report to the umpire all changes of Pitcher and Catcher, and any injured, ill, or absent batters being skipped. Report these changes when they occur.
8. Intermediate and Junior Divisions must also report changes of players not participating on defense (aka, Bench Players). Report Bench Players at the beginning of every defensive half inning.

Baseball Defensive Positions by Number

D63 CBO Line-up Card Instructions for Umpires (Intermediates and Juniors)

1. You should receive the top two copies at the plate meeting. Verify that both copies are the same. Give the second copy to the opposing manager.
2. There are no Substitutes with CBO so recording changes is different. Instruct the managers to report:
  - Pitcher and Catcher changes
  - Which players are not participating on defense (aka Bench Players)
  - Injured, ill or absent batters that will be skipped on offense
 Have them report the Bench Players each inning as they take the field and the other changes when they occur.
3. Record a new pitcher or catcher by entering a "P" or "C" in the appropriate inning column for the player that will be taking the position. Use dots or other nomenclature to record outs at the time of the change.
4. Record players not participating on defense by entering an "X" in the appropriate inning column.
5. Record a skipped batter by entering "SB" in the appropriate inning column for the batter being skipped.
6. Use the Conferences rows at the bottom of the line-up to record visits. Enter the jersey number of the pitcher or batter at the time of the conference.
7. Generally write small and in the upper half of the cells as you may need to record multiple changes in a single cell.

Note: If you notice a change in pitcher or catcher, record it even if it is not reported. If there is a pitcher or catcher change that is unreported and unnoticed, IT DID NOT HAPPEN.
